Report4.An educational Tour to - Pink City
(-by Ramnath)

27 August, 2021 - Tuesday - Our trip started early in the morning when boarded on the train to go to Jaipur. While travelling we saw many mountains which was part of Aravali hills and our teacher told us the geographical importance of these hills. Then when we arrive at the Jaipur station we witness that people were blowing garbage here & there not in the dustbins, our principal sir asked them to follow cleanliness and also guided us for the same. Our first destination was Hawa Mahal which is world famous for its immense beauty. Our teacher hired a guide who told us when it was made, by whom it was made and the purpose of its construction. He told us that the reason of this much windows is that all queens may have cool air in summers. Then we went to Amber fort whose infrastructure was mind boggling and guide forbade us from using phones because of the incident occurred few years ago. We went to Museum where several things of past has been displayed

1 which gave all of us goosebumps. He saw how kings used to fight and what weapons they used. Our guide also told us that 'Jaipur' is named after the king ~~Tai~~ Singh, who is known for his grandeur. He told us the history of Jaipur being called the "Pink city". This was really good for history subject.

11. The Rattrap Seller:-

HSER-177/2024

Rattrap seller was emaciated, very poor, illiterate person. He peddles in the town selling his rattraps. By the description of joy he felt by thinking ill of people it was clear that he hated rich people. He is a thoughtful man as he thinks the world with its riches being a rattrap with its bait but later on proved himself traitor by stealing money of old crofter who was very generous with him about his confidences. He is sort of childish to go with Edla even if he knew that it not good thing to do. He has an unusual sense of humour. At last he raises himself as a captain and leaves gift for Edla proving the theme of the story that goodness can be created in human being.

परीक्षार्थी उत्तर

Our Poet Pablo Neruda who was deeply affected by the world war.

1 1/2
Context :- In this poem our poet beautifully illustrates the importance of introspection. He requests us to keep quiet, to take pausing and suggests us to give time to ourselves.

Explanation :- Above lines are the closing lines of the Poem. In this lines poet gives example of nature which sometimes ~~seems~~ seems apparent death and then proves to be alive. In this lines he expresses the importance of silent introspection and then rebounce to perform our task perfectly.

In the closing lines, he says that he has reassimilate the idea of taking pause and now it's our responsibility to reflect on it. He inspires us to take a break and rethink, replan and rearrange the thing we want to do and then perform task.

Critical points :-

i) Poet has used simple, elegant and aesthetic language in this poem.

ii) He has use assonance and consonance really perfectly.

iii) He has used rhyming scheme - abcc d.

14. Theme of the poem - "My Mother at Sixty-Six"

The theme of the poem - "My Mother at Sixty-Six" revolves around the inevitable process of aging and fear of separation. It delves into the complex emotions experienced by the poet as she confronts about her mother's frailty and harsh reality of mortality. There are other small themes of the poem as :-

i) Emotional resilience :- Poet even having turmoil inside herself but smiles in front of her mother shows the normal human tendency to hide emotions from our loved ones which causes them to worry.

ii) Contrast between Young and old :- The images of young trees and sprinting trees contrast with her mother's stillness and motionlessness. This poem beautifully creates difference b/w young's vibrancy and old's silence.

iii) Frailty and Mortality :- The poet's description about her mother pale and wan face which she compares to winter's moon clearly expresses her fear to lose her. She has to accept that her mother is mortal by losing her fair skin.

2 i) The shepherd boy Endymion lists sun, moon, clear-rills, musk-roses, forest with its greenery, daffodils, bands of flowers, and our great warrior's grandeur as the things of beauty to the Moon goddess, Cynthia.

ii) Aunt Jennifer's fingers might be fluttering because of two reasons:-
a) Her husband, might not like her moving so she might be afraid that he would come and punish her.

2 b) She was very weak, because of responsibility of marriage had made her overwork and her constant fear of her husband had left nothing but with weakest personality.

2+2 (4) This was reason of aunt's hand fluttering as she was trapped into a very abusive marriage with uncle she became really weak, and overburdened with responsibilities.

16. Why did . . . level?

(3) The narrator, Charley, a 31 year old ordinary man who suffered from fear, war, worry and insecurities of modern world imagined a new level on the Grand Central Station because this was his way to escape from all addities of his present life. He thought that the things were pretty good during his grandpa's time so he imagined the third level in 1894 to take a temporary refuge from harsh reality. His psychiatrist friend said that he was suffering from a mental disease named waking-dream wish fulfillment, which is true enough. His stamp collection also showed that he was sad in his present life and want a break from all of these.

17.

(2) i) Jerry was greatly influenced by the thinking style of Mr. Lamb. He told his mother that Mr. Lamb told him things which matter, which was not said by anyone else. He wanted
